Malconery, 822 Piggott avenue, East St. Louis, says: "I had suffered from extarrh for years, and about five years ago it began to spread and go down into my bronchial tubes and lungs. My lungs were sore and I would cough winter and summer. I went to various physicians and tried different remedies without any relief. I gradually got weaker and lost flesh and had almost given up hope of ever being cured. Having heard so much about the wonderful cures being performed by the Bi-Chemic Physicians I went to their offices and started treatment. My cough is now cured. I have gained strength and flesh and I feel like a new man. I found the Bi-Chemic Treatment entirely different from anything that I ever tried, and I could feel its invigorating effect from the first." overed.
